MORGAN PARTNER'S SMOKE IN CAPITOL SON ASKS DIVORCE

Rich Boy-Poor airl Romance Is Wrecked in Court Year After Marriage.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5 .- Here's Cupid again bawling his lungs out again at the portal of a divorce court. Ray mond Winthrop Bowdoin has sued for a divorce from Elizabeth Maloney Bowdoin, whom he married in Jersey City, Dec. 2, 1914. Each is twenty Master Raymond Winthrop Bow doin is the son of James Sullivan Bowdoin, who is connected with the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. He was a cousin of the late George S. Bowdoin who was one of the most prominent partners in the Morgan concern as was George S. Bowdoin's son, Temple, who died December 2, 1914. Both James Sullivan Bowdoin and young

Raymond are wealthy. The family of Mrs. Elizabeth Maloney Bowdoin is not wealthy, one would judge from their very modest home in an upper east side flathouse, with faded carpets and dim gaslights in the hallways, and with two families to a flow.

Met Her At Dance.

But the girl is very pretty. She has clustering tawny hair, blue eyes in rather narrow lins, set fetchingly oblique her youthful form slim but with sinuously rounded lines. She is said also to have received considerable of an education, to have wit and personality

Not everything could be learned of Not everything could be learned of the romance that is now stranded on divorce court shoals. But it was, at any rate in so far as the Bowdoin family knows, quite in the same way of the rich boy-poor girl affair, an clope t. The youthful Bowdoin had met at several dances. se marriage license, obtained in Wechawken a week before the cere-mony, described young Bowdoin as being twenty-three years old.

Set Up Own Home.

The following morning Master Raymond presented his bride at his own luxurious home in West End avenue. It is said that she and her husband remained there several days until they set up a home of their own.
It is further known that they separated last June—for what cause is not known. The greatest secrecy was observed in filing the divorce papers, and although they have been on record since January 1, the divorce action did not become known until yesterday, when Supreme Court Lustice Newborne. when Supreme Court Justice Newbers when Supreme Court Justice Newberger was asked to appoint guardians for Bowdoin and his wife.

Under the name of Bessie Bowdoin young Bowdoin's wife is in the chorus of "Around the Town" which is now

Civic Pride Subject of Shoemaker's Address

Plans to make the current year a banner period in the history of the Connecticus Avenue Citizens' Association will be discussed in the assembly ball of the Army and Navy Prepara-tory School on Wednesday evening. An address on civic pride will probably be made by Leuis P. Shoemaker, president of the Brightwood Citizens. Association. Following the business meeting a buffet luncheon will be served.

RESULTS IN FLURRY

A temporary flurry was caused at he Capitol late yesterday afternoon when the odor of smoke drifted through one of the lower corridors. Because of the Ottawa fire, excitement was intense for a few minutes A small fire in a closet on the ground floor in a corridor adjacent to the Senate Committee on Rules was discovered. Two buckets of water thrown on the flames by Charles West, one of the colored men on duty West, one of the colored men on duly in the vicinity, extinguished the blaze. It is supposed spontaneous combustion caused the fire.

Because of the Ottawa fire, special precautions are being taken both with respect to watchfulness against possibility of fire and guarding the Capital from capits. Capitol from cranks

Urges Socialist for Possible Tariff Board

Appointment of a Socialist, a Progres sive, a Republican, and two Democrati as the personnel of the proposed tariff commission was urged today by Congressman London, Socialist. He said gressman London, Socialist. He said each party polling over 500,000 votes should have representation.

"It is utterly absurd," said London, "to seek in the tariff a proper subject of division along political lines. When selfish interests make protection desirable, political affiliations have been unbestimatingly, discognified. esitatingly disregarded. can hardly get a fair chance at revising the tariff downward, a problem with which political parties have been playing football a hundred years."
